Cyber Wellness

It is not every day that you hear local politicians comment about the supernatural, but it did happen on 12 Dec 2017, when Tan Chuan-Jin (Speaker of Parliament) shared the following Facebook post:

From time to time, we encounter issues that may be beyond an MP's ability. And I mean waaaaay beyond.

House visit this evening. Heard a neighbour giving feedback about dragging chairs in flat above. I thought...sigh, another neighbour dispute.

Except that there is no one living in the flat. The resident had passed on and flat is empty.

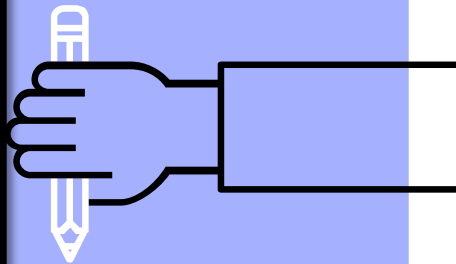

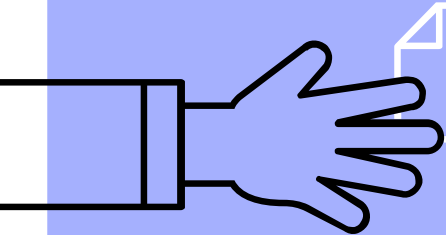

Okaaaay....🤪

Source

Check if the source is trustworthy

- ▶ Who is the author of the site?
Check the URL and domain.
Example:
  - ▶ government (.gov)
  - ▶ educational institution (.edu)
  - ▶ commercial (.com)

Understand

Understand the context: Is the content a fact or an opinion?

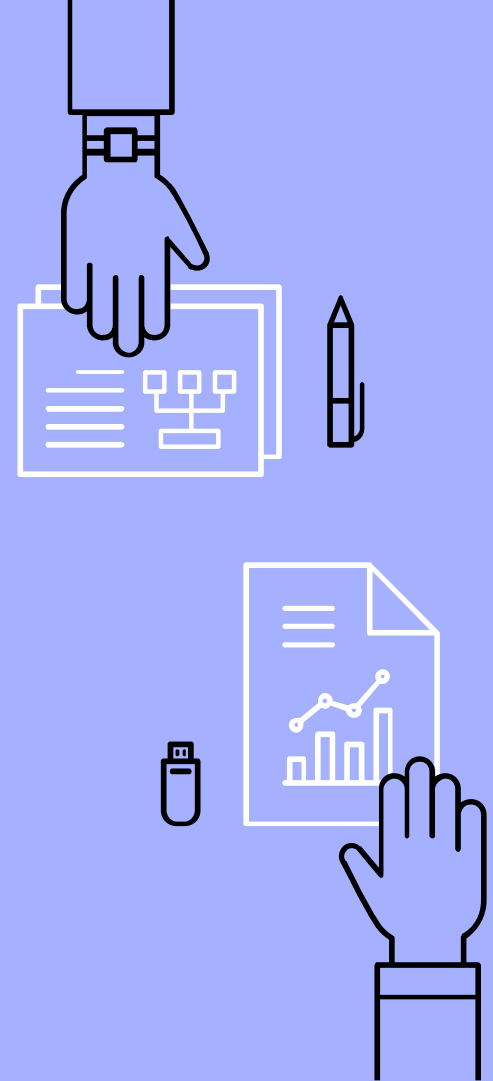

- ▶ What is the purpose of the website? (for advertisement, entertainment, education, etc)
- ▶ Is the information updated? Check the copyright or 'Last Updated' date, usually found at the bottom of the page

Research

Research other sources

- ▶ Have you checked and compared with multiple sources?
- ▶ How do they compare with the initial source?

Evaluate

Make a judgement on the content

- ▶ Have you looked at the content from a different angle?
- ▶ Did you exercise fair judgement and have a balanced view?
